

PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT

Preferential Tuition Rates Secured for Rwandan Students at Kent State University, Ohio

The Higher Education Council (HEC) is pleased to inform the public that, the Ministry of Education has reached a landmark tuition agreement with Kent State University in Ohio, USA.

Through this agreement, Rwandan students nominated by the Ministry of Education – including both government-sponsored and private candidates – will now benefit from a 97% reduction in the Non-Ohio Resident Surcharge under the Preferred Partner Tuition Rate scheme.

The adjusted tuition rates are as follows:

- Undergraduate students will pay $6,674.55 per semester, down from the standard $11,451.70.
- Graduate students will pay $5,491.74 per semester, down from the standard $9,976.86.

This initiative is part of Rwanda's broader efforts to expand access to quality education, ease the financial burden on students studying abroad, and strengthen global academic partnerships.

For more information, please contact

- Desiré Gacinya, Director, Bursary/Loan and Fund Management Unit
dgacinya@hec.gov.rw
- Pacifique Niyonzima, Kent State University's representative in Rwanda, at pniyonzi@kent.edu

End